

Such a nice shade of blue..
White clouds..
And also grey ones
Through movement mixing together with the blue sky

Movement - smooth and slow
It is changing the atmosphere in the city and also inside of me

Horizon ... not straight at all due to the forest and electricity cable systems.

Looking closer...

Two buildings in a shape of cube..
Grey again..
I guess people call them modern buildings because the street forwards me is full with older apartment and restaurant houses.

I see smoke..
Coming from a window or maybe a chimney.
I wonder if someone is cooking there..
I'm hungry and maybe the smell here makes me even more hungry...

"soon it will be ready " she says.
