

The Game

With excitement I'm looking forwards to open my eyes
Everyone told me it's going to be awesome!

At the beginning my energy doesn't lie
I'm shining and singing

But then something happened unexpectedly
My mind took over direction of my heart and intuition
Did I lose myself somewhere ?
Am I following someone?

Some days I see a shadow next to me

It becomes bigger and bigger and It comes closer and closer
It feels like a dark, big, loud and scary creature that follows me
It wants me not only to go with it
But also to grow with its energy.
Bigger.

Even when I sleep..
It doesn't let me breathe
Sometimes it wants to come very close to me saying that shadow usually is the answer to see the light again
I can't sing anymore
But I still try to keep myself awake
Because who knows what's going to happen next...
